3. Who can use goWave by RHB?

To use goWave by RHB, you need to be 18 or older and have an account with RHB Bank (Cambodia) Plc. We will ask you for some information to confirm it's really you, like your national ID, your identification information and your selfie picture. Occasionally, we might need some extra information from you. This could be for legal reasons, Know Your Customer (KYC) and Enhanced Customer Due Diligence (ECDD) purpose, to keep things secure, or to give you access to new features. Just make sure the information you give us is accurate and up-to-date, and let us know if anything changes and/or updated information from time to time.

4. Using goWave by RHB

When you log in successfully, you're giving us the go-ahead to follow your instructions through the app. This includes, but not limited to, the transfer of funds, paying bills, and more.

Processing your transactions. Sometimes, we might need to take a little extra time to review a transaction before we can complete it. This could be due to security checks and verification, or intermediary Bank's requirements or following laws and regulations. We will let you know if there's ever a delay.

Keeping your account safe is your responsibility too. If someone else uses your login information to make unauthorized transactions, you shall be liable for those unless you followed all the security guidelines in these Terms.

Changing your mind about a transaction? Generally, once you've submitted a request to transfer money or pay a bill, you cannot cancel or change it. However, in some cases, we might be able to help you out. Just contact us and we will see what we can do.

Let us know if something seems off. If you ever notice any abnormal or suspicious activity on your account, incomplete information, or something else that doesn't seem right, please contact us right away.

We strive to make your transactions happen quickly and securely, but sometimes they may take longer than expected or even fail due to various reasons even unintentional to provide the wrong information. In these cases, we won't be responsible and liable for any delays or failed transactions or any lost.

Occasionally, we might partner with other companies to help us complete certain transaction. These partners may have their own rules and other applicable laws and regulation, and while we do our best to pick reliable ones, we cannot be held responsible or liable for any issues they cause, such as delays or missing money that may occur.

goWave by RHB is designed for your everyday banking needs. To keep things running smoothly and securely for everyone, please use the app responsibly and in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and any applicable laws. This means using goWave by RHB only for its intended and legally purposes, such as transfer funds, paying bills, and checking your account balance and other functions provided by the Bank. Avoid any actions that might disrupt the app's functionality or the systems behind it. This includes trying to access accounts or information that doesn't belong to you. The information on goWave by RHB should also be left unchanged, and you cannot copy or distribute it without our permission.

5. Accessing goWave by RHB

Getting started with goWave by RHB is easy! Whether you're an existing customer or new to RHB Bank (Cambodia) Plc., you can sign up and open an account directly through the goWave by RHB app. Once you're signed up, you can log in securely using your username and password. The app also allows you to set up biometric authentication (fingerprint or Face ID) for even faster logins.

We take security seriously at RHB Bank (Cambodia) Plc. and use advanced measures to protect your information. However, your help is also important. To keep your account safe, remember to never share your login credentials (username, password, PIN) with anyone, be careful not to leave your mobile device unattended while logged into the app, and contact us immediately if you suspect any unauthorized activity and/or transactions. You are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of your account credentials (including usernames, passwords, and PINs). You agree that any access to or use of the Services through your account shall be deemed authorized by you, and you accept full liability for all transactions, activities, and liabilities incurred under your credentials.

If you suspect or become aware of any unauthorized use of your account or breach of security, you must notify us immediately. By law, you remain liable for all transactions and damages occurring prior to our actual receipt and processing of such notification, unless you can conclusively prove that you maintained strict adherence to all security guidelines set forth herein.

An extra layer of security is added whenever you make a transaction through the mobile app. You might be asked to verify it using a one-time password (OTP) sent to your registered mobile number, or the mobile app might allow you to approve transactions directly through a notification sent to your device.

While some mobile banking apps allow you to set transaction limits directly within the app, this functionality is not currently available on goWave by RHB. If you'd like to set or change your transaction limits, you can contact our customer service or visit a branch.

6. Fees and charges

We don't charge you any monthly or annual fees for using the App. However, we may charge you fees for certain transactions or services. We will always disclose the fees to you before you complete the transaction or service, and you agree to pay them when due. You also agree to pay any fees or charges imposed by third parties in connection with your use of the App.

For security and risk management purposes, transaction limits may apply to transaction conducted through the mobile app. Please refer to the Transaction Limits page for details. We reserve the right to revise such limits from time to time at our discretion and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

7. Closing your account

You can close your goWave by RHB account anytime by letting us know. We will close your account as soon as possible, but there might be a short delay if we need to finish up any outstanding transactions or balances in your account first. You will still be responsible for any fees, charges, or other things you owe us before closing your account.

If you choose to uplift your Fixed Deposit (FD) through the goWave by RHB app, here's what you need to know:

- Using the app to uplift your FD automatically cancels any physical FD certificates. Once uplifted, the physical certificate is no longer valid.
- After using the app for FD upliftment, you cannot use the physical certificate for further transactions at any RHB Bank (Cambodia) Plc. branch. Claims made with a cancelled certificate won't be honoured.
- You will get a confirmation via the app upon successful FD upliftment. This confirmation overrides any physical certificates.
- In case of disputes regarding FD upliftment through the app, the bank's digital records will be final and binding.

In some cases, you agree with the bank to close, block any amount and/or freeze your account or end these Terms with you. We can do this for a few reasons, such as:

- If we suspect suspicious activity on your account that could be a security risk.
- If you violate any of the rules in these Terms or any laws.
- If your account is inactive for a long time.
- If we decide to stop offering goWave by RHB altogether.
- If any balance under dispute and/or investigation.

If we close your account or these Terms are terminated, you won't be able to log in to goWave by RHB anymore. We also won't be able to follow any instructions you send us after termination. You will still be responsible for any fees or charges from before termination.

If we block any amount of your account, the blocked amount will not be able to transfer and/or withdrawal within the period of time.

If we freeze your account, your account will be restricted to debit any balance following the laws and regulation instruction.

You understand that we won't be responsible and liable for any problems or losses you have because your account is closed, block and freeze or these Terms are terminated.

Your account will be classified as "Dormant" if you do not make any transactions (such as transfers, deposits, or payments) for 12 consecutive months. Automatic system activities, like interest payments or fee deductions, do not count as activity.

For your security and to prevent unauthorized access, once your account is dormant, your ability to make outbound transfers, bill payments, or QR codes via goWave by RHB will be temporarily locked.

The Bank reserves the right to charge a fee on dormant accounts, which will be deducted directly from your account balance in accordance with our standard Fee Schedule.

To protect your funds, you cannot reactivate a dormant account directly through goWave by RHB. You must visit any of our branches in person with a valid, unexpired national ID or passport to verify your identity and unlock your account.

If an account remains completely inactive for 10 consecutive years, it will be closed, and any remaining funds will be transferred to the National Bank of Cambodia (NBC) as required by law.
